I can't believe we (Ally and I) actually felt sorry for you. Not knowing what is to come because you are with a person who sucks the life out of you. Yes I had a child with him, trust me it's a road you don't want to follow. What kind of man makes the women who bares his child cry because he doesn't believe it is his. Cry because he doesn't love you like his past loves. Cry because it just hurts to know that you'll never be good enough. Cry because you finally realize you are good enough, but he doesn't care. Cry because the child you have together won't ever know his real father, because no matter what he says, if he wanted to be around him, he would try. He never has, don't you see that? He had an open door, he knew it, he just lied to everyone about being shut out.

We felt bad, because as we read your journal, and discussed it, we both thought about responding, and warning you that you are right, you won't be good enough, because nothing is ever good enough for him. We both actually worried what hurt he would cause on another person. Do you think that we would be in loving caring relationships, with such wonderful friends, if we were what he says we were? Do you think the whole world is out to get you too? Tell you what, talk to my husband, the person James always said was the father of my son, Don. He'll tell you exactly what that man is like, what he saw happen to me, how much I changed when I was with him. You talk to my mother, who cried because she knew what he was like, how controlling he was, and how I was never happy.

Talk to his mother, she knows about his guilt trips, she knows how Ally and I both tried to make him feel good. She tried too, she never succeeded because he never wanted to be happy. He's happy being unhappy.

Don't come crying back to Dallas to your "friends" when you finally realize what he's doing to you. You won't have anymore after this episode. And the others are right, you are perfect for him. Such a jealous petty bitch you are, can't even hide the jealousy, so you wish ill on an innocent babe. The death of a baby is not something to wish on anyone, it's a terrible nightmare, and I don't even wish it on you. As much as you may deserve it, I don't wish ill on the ignorant. Enjoy your miserable life in that miserable town, in that miserable house, with a miserable man who will do nothing BUT cause you misery. (Reply to this)

Narcissism cares more about what other people think than what is real. Donald Beal, father of the third child of Veronica Petersen, left after she filed emotional abuse complaint against him in 2005. Alicia McMahon/Scarborough divorced from BOBBY SCARBROUGH. Elizabeth Botelho is still secure in her relationships and stock with all parties 20 years later.

Veronica Petersen calls DONALD J. BEAL her "husband" in this post; prompting investigator KRISTEN MACK to surmise that the child born to the couple was not born out of wedlock. Beal had a child with another woman, and divorced her after his criminal conviction.

Iva Petersen, in an agreed 24 hour visit intended to stop the abuse; brandished a knife and took the child by force on threat of harming herself seriously and threat to call 911 to frame James Allen; thereby kidnapping the Allen child.

Dr. Charlyce Ann Klepper denies having ever spoken to Alicia McMahon or Veronica Petersen since they broke up with him; and died as a result of this abuse in March 2nd 2022 - having never met her grandson or received the $60,000 she invested in the company that the abductors attacked from 2010-2022.

"Because he never wanted to be happy", a classic narcissistic disorder claim, to suggest "magical knowledge" of the intent of other persons to justify abusive actions.

Whatever that means. The abuse and passive aggressive behavior was immensely stressful, and Allen was relieved when both abusers stopped trying to talk to him at all.

Veronica Petersen tells Elizabeth Botelho that the Dallas group will reject her if she does not accept this information. This is Narcissistic Abuse, and anything but "Friendship". It is narcissist manipulation.

Narcissistic Abuse often holds out forgiveness and then punishes by dehumanizing and abusing. This is why James Allen was unhappy, and struggled while supporting the writer, Veronica Petersen, in 2000-2001 abduction to marry Donald J. Beal (allegedly, per 2002 claim prior filing "abandonment" civil suit for Welfare benefits after disclosing that).
- The "magical knowledge" of why a person acts to suggest intent a justification to abuse, is clinical narcissism.

Narcissism is clear where it seeks to impose values and beliefs on others as if their own beliefs are invalid if they differ from the narcissist. it is often paired with holding out some higher personal moral class to aggrandize the party making the statement over the other party; passive aggressive narcissistic abuse.

"As much as you may deserve it (the death of a baby", the (narcissist abuser) states they "do not wish ill on" and then resorts again to abusive invalidating language calling E. Botelho "Ignorant".

Veronica Petersen then makes more invalidating remarks, calling CITY OF ADA a "miserable town"; and the home of Dr. Ann Klepper M.D. (deceased March 2nd 2022 due to this abuse and cancer) a "miserable house". And, of course, calling James Allen (the father of Veronica Petersen's Child) a "miserable man".

This is "GRAPHIC SOLUTIONS", a company in PLANO TEXAS at 2701 W 15th Street PMB 236. They got that IP in 2002. So, feel free to tell them on behalf of Ada how their comment contributed to the discussion.
